ROAD INJUNCTION DISSOLVED BY THE CIRCUIT JUDGE

APPROPRIATION FOR MAYO TRAIL
IN ACCORD WITH EXPRESSED WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

On last Monday Judge A. N. Cisco, holding Circuit Court at this place, passed upon the injunction suit brought by D. L. Thompson, seeking to restrain Lawrence county from appropriating $125,000.00 of its road bond issue on the Mayo Trail. He dissolved the injunction, stating at length his reasons for so doing.

The case will go to the Court of Appeals at once by agreement, in order to get certain points settled and prevent them from arising in other counties. It is believed the Appellate Court will give the case early consideration, and a decision in about three weeks is hoped for.

Judge Cisco called attention to the fact that the people of Lawrence county, by a vote of more than five to one, declared for a bond issue of $250,000, half of which is to be spent on the Mayo Trail. The two roads leading north and south from the county seat, now known as the Mayo Trail. These roads, named in the court orders and advertising in December, 1919, were then described as the East Fork route to Boyd county and the Lick Creek route to Johnson county. The will of the people is supreme. No law can be successfully executed and maintained that is opposed by a majority of the people, especially by an overwhelming majority.

Spent in connection with the State and Federal aid, this $125,000 is worth more than it could possibly be worth if used independently. It amounts to only 10 per cent of the cost of these roads, and they will be maintained at the expense of the state and federal departments for all time. In a generation the cost of maintenance will be almost or quite equal to the original cost.

The right of the fiscal court and advisory commission to appropriate this money on the two roads specified is upheld by the decision.

CIRCUIT COURT IS CLOSING ITS TERM

Our Circuit Court has about reached the end of the present term. It will probably adjourn today. The juries were discharged the first of the week. The grand jury was brought back Monday, after an intermission of a week, and more than 40 additional indictments were returned, making a total of 110 for the term.

Judge Cisco is after the moonshiners and bootleggers with all the power at his disposal. These law breakers will find that it doesn't pay to fool with the liquor business in this district. If every Circuit Judge in the United States would use just as vigorous methods the wave of liquor lawlessness following the enactment of dry laws would soon disappear. The laws are sufficient if executed.

The juries at the present term were good ones and Judge Cisco took occasion to commend them for their good work. In the liquor cases the juries returned effective verdicts and the Judge added peace bonds of $500 in each case. Failure to give this puts the men in jail. The bond holds them to good behavior for one year.

Jethro Steel and Edith Boggs were fined $300 each for selling liquor, and were sentenced to three months in jail. Curtis Boggs was fined $100 and given ten days in jail.

In the case of Graham vs. Graham, involving the title to the Lark Graham farm, was decided in favor of Oscar Graham, a son to whom the land was deeded. The deed was burned six months after delivery, and was never recorded. A. O. Carter was appointed special commissioner to make another deed.

Miss Garnet Bartram and Mr. Hall Married

The marriage of Miss Garnet Bartram and Mr. Hoover Hall took place on Tuesday of this week at the parsonage of the M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Cheap and was witnessed by only a few friends of the young couple.

The bride was attired in a suit of brown velvet. She is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Vinnie Bartram and is popular in Louisa where she has been attending school. She has many friends among the young sets. All wish her the greatest joy.

Mr. Hall is a promising young business man of this place. His home was formerly near Glenhays, W. Va.

For the present they will reside at the home of Mrs. Bartram, who lives "on the Point" near here. They will probably locate in Louisa later.

CAN WE DOUBT IT?

We heard a story the other day about an editor having to be carried home on a stretcher as the result of having received a kind word over something he had printed. The shock simply unnerved him. But just as he reached his home some one gave him a good cuffing about another article he had printed, and he got up and returned to work.—Jefferson County Republican.

MOVING TO LOUISA.

Mr. Powers, employed by the C. & O. railway, is moving his family from Paintsville to Louisa. They will occupy the Branham house in

DEATH REMOVES MR. F. R. MOORE

Mr. F. R. Moore, well known as "Uncle Tip," died at his home in Louisa last Sunday at noon. Having reached the venerable age of 81, and never having been of very robust physique, his death resulted from exhaustion. For several months he had been quite feeble, though able to be on the streets a part of the time.

The funeral took place on Tuesday at 10 o'clock from the M. E. Church South, followed by interment in Pine Hill cemetery. Rev. J. D. Bell, pastor, preached a very fitting sermon. The Masons had charge of the funeral and burial. The attendance was very large. Such a profusion of flowers is seldom seen at a funeral. Mr. Moore's well known love for flowers prompted all friends to give special attention to this feature of the occasion.

The death of Mr. Moore marks the passing of the last member of the family of Mr. Frederick Moore, founder of the town of Louisa. Also, he was one of our oldest citizens. He was a member of the Lawrence county bar. For a number of years he had taken great interest in church work, being an enthusiastic member of the M. E. Church South.

A few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Moore celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage, a very unusual privilege for any couple. Mrs. Moore was a sister of the late Judge James H. "Tip" Moore. She survives her husband, together with one son and four daughters. All of them were with Mr. Moore in his last hours. The son is Dr. W. L. Moore of St. Louis, Mrs. Fannie Hudgins of Ashland, Mrs. W. F. Farley of Holden, W. Va., Mrs. Will Cole of Rush, and Mrs. L. J. Webb of Louisa, are the daughters.

Uncle Tip was a kindly man, with a good word for everybody. He had no enemies. Much of his time was given to visiting the sick, always leaving flowers to cheer them.

The pall bearers at the funeral were as follows:

Honorary: M. H. Johns, Frank Maynard, H. B. Hewlett, T. J. Snyder and N. D. Waldeck.

Active: Dr. C. B. Walters, Harry Roberts, Willie Moore, H. B. Muncey, J. P. Gartin, E. K. Spencer.

Wet-weather ponds in Ballard county also have been leased which catch the spring overflow, but which dry up in the fall.

A thousand quail will be trapped or purchased in well-stocked counties and distributed where there is a scarcity. Eighteen Virginia white-tailed deer from the Pine Mountain reserve have been released on the mountainside.

NEW RAILROAD FOR EASTERN KENTUCKY

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 22.—A new railroad for Eastern Kentucky, opening up thousands of acres of virgin coal lands and estimated to cost about $25,000,000, will be under construction within a few months, according to information reaching here today.

The road, which is being surveyed for a length of 150 miles, will be financed by Northern and Eastern interests. Preliminary surveys are said to be under way between Pineville, Ky., and Williamson, W. Va.

The new road is planned to leave the Cumberland Valley Division of the Louisville & Nashville and pass through Leslie, Perry, Letcher, Knox, Floyd and Pike counties in Kentucky and join the Norfolk & Western railway at Williamson, W. Va.

Leslie and Knox counties, which are without any railroad, contain large tracts of undeveloped timber and coal lands. The new road, according to branch of the Louisville & Nashville recent plans, will cross the North Fork and pass through the Letcher fields at Hazard, Ky., on the Chesapeake & Ohio.

MRS. LITTLEJOHN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Littlejohn, one of Carter county's best known and influential citizens died at her home at Grayson on Monday evening, February 21, at the age of 84 years. Mrs. Littlejohn was the widow of Captain George W. Littlejohn, veteran of the Civil war, and for many years postmaster at Grayson, who passed away three years ago.

Before marriage she was Miss Elizabeth Davis, sister of the late Judge R. D. Davis of Ashland. One daughter and one son survive, Miss Julia Littlejohn of Grayson and J. D. Littlejohn, a brilliant newspaper man of Ohio. One sister, Mrs. Mollie Litaler is living in Chattanooga, Tenn.

The funeral service was conducted at 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday by Rev. Mr. Lambert and interment was made in the Grayson cemetery.

Gilliam is a union miner and one of the trio recently convicted and sentenced to jail for 12 months and to pay a fine of $500 for an assault on L. L. Tinsley at Chattaroy station. William Trent is charged with the shooting and was arrested and brought to jail here by Deputy Sheriff C. T. Clark. Trent is a non-union miner.—Williamson (W. Va.) Republican.

WHISKY TAX IS DECLARED LEGAL

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 18.—Kentucky's whisky tax law, imposing a tax of 50 cents a gallon on liquor in bonded warehouses in the state, is constitutional, according to a decision of the state of appeals today.

State officials estimate, if the decision is upheld by higher courts, one phase of which is now before the United States supreme court, the tax will produce $15,000,000.

The whisky tax law, passed by the 1920 general assembly, for the benefit of the state road fund, was attacked by a Frankfort distiller upon the ground that it was an unlawful exaction of legislative power, and confiscated property without due process of law.

Judge Sampson, voicing the opinion of the court of appeals, decided adversely. Moreover, it held that the general assembly could legislate both to raise revenue under its police powers and that it was entirely within its rights in taxing certain occupations and not taxing others. The court held, however, that the tax is not cumulative and is payable only when whiskey is withdrawn from bonded warehouses.

This was the first suit filed to test the law. A similar suit tried in the Federal Court at Louisville was decided against the State and is now pending in the United States Supreme Court.

FUGATE-STONE.

Fallsburg, Kentucky. The wedding of Miss Josephine Fugate and Mr. Fred Stone took place on Wednesday, February 16, at twelve o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Armistie Fugate of this place. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Fugate and one of Lawrence county's most attractive girls. It would be difficult for us to say too much in praise of her. Mr. Stone is to be congratulated on the prize he has won. We are glad to say that Mr. Stone is a man of excellent character. He is superintendent of the Steel coal company in Pike county and has been in their employ 11 years.

The wedding was a quite pretty affair. The parlor was decorated with ferns, holly and mistletoe. The bride wore a white silk georgette crepe embroidered in lavender, white kid shoes and gloves. They were escorted to the parlor by a host of friends and united in the bonds of holy matrimony by Rev. R. H. Cassidy after which they marched to the dining room which was beautifully decorated and there were served a delicious dinner prepared by Mrs. Nancy Harmon. After taking the group of the wedding party they went to the station. The bride's traveling suit was dark blue tricot. They were taken to Fallsburg by Banner Fugate, the bride's brother and left for Mossy Bottom, Pike-co., where they will make their future home. They were accompanied home by the bride's brother, James Fugate and her cousin Trimble Taylor.

We extend to them congratulations and good wishes for their future happiness.

TWO FRIENDS.

NEW BANK AT PIKEVILLE. John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, has granted permission for the organization of a new bank at Pikeville, Ky., to be called the Day and Night National Bank. ## BEAUTIFUL CHURCH WEDDING IN LOUISA

A beautiful morning wedding solemnized last Wednesday in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Louisa was that of Miss Gladys Irene Land and Mr. J. Robert Kennedy. The hour was nine o'clock.

The pulpit was backed with ferns which formed a pretty background for the wedding party.

Just previous to the ceremony Miss Elizabeth Yates sang "I Love You Truly," Miss Agnes Abbott and Miss Elizabeth Conley rendering the accompaniment on violin and piano. The wedding march was played by Mrs. George R. Vinson and Miss Abbott.

Miss Beulah Marcum, of Ceredo, W. Va., a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. Kennedy had as his best man Mr. Bruce Williams, of Ashland.

The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Hager, Miss Helen Vinson, Miss Vivian Dixon and Miss Clara Bromley.

The ushers were Mr. E. K. Spencer, Mr. E. L. Wellman, Mr. Fred M. Vinson, Mr. Robert Dixon, Jr., Mr. Jas. Q. Lackey, Jr., and Mr. Jim Ferguson, who also were groomsmen.

The first of the attendants to enter the church were Miss Hager and Mr. Spencer, who came down opposite aisles, then Miss Vinson and Mr. Wellman, Miss Dixon and Mr. Vinson, Miss Bromley and Mr. Dixon, Miss Snyder and Mr. Lackey, and Miss Hays and Mr. Ferguson, and the maid of honor, Next came little Miss Martha Mayo Stewart as flower girl, in a dainty frock of blue tulle with hat to match. She carried a basket of flowers and gracefully scattered them in the pathway of the bride, who entered with her uncle, Mr. R. L. Vinson. At the altar they were joined by the groom and best man. The bridal party of attractive maids and handsome men formed a fitting picture for the occasion.

The ceremony uniting these young people was impressively read by the Rev. James D. Bell, pastor of the church.

The bride looked well in a stylish suit of dark blue tricot with hat, veil and shoes of gray. The flowers she carried were white roses and snowdrops with lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was attired in blue tulle. The bridesmaids wore dresses of brown satin and blue tulle of becoming styles and their hats were pretty spring models. Their bouquets were roses.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a trip to Louisville and Lexington. They will then go to Wheelwright where they will begin housekeeping. Mr. Kennedy holds a position at Wheelwright with the Elkhorn Coal Corporation. He came to this valley three years ago as a traveling salesman, in which capacity he "made good." He established himself as a young man worthy of trust, industrious, intelligent and popular. His parents live in Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will visit them on this trip.

The bride is a social favorite here and is greatly admired for her charming manner and sweet disposition. She is the daughter of Mrs. Janie Vinson Land, of this place. Until recently she held a position in the Louisa National Bank. Nothing could attest her popularity more than the number of affairs given in her honor after the announcement of the approaching nuptials.

Best wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy to their new home with the hope that some time they may return to Louisa to live.

RECEPTION FOR WEDDING PARTY

A reception to those taking part in the wedding was given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Land.

A lovely salad course and cake was served. When the bride's cake was cut the lucky slices went to Misses Julia Snyder, Vivian Hays, Helen Vinson and Edith Marcum and Mr. Junior Lackey and Mr. E. L. Wellman, who received the ring, dime, darning needle, thimble, wishbone and bachelor's button respectively. The cake was baked by Mrs. C. L. Miller and was presented to the bride by Anna Mary Miller and Catherine Carey.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE.

Miss Vivian Hays entertained a number of young ladies at her home on Main street last Friday afternoon in compliment to Miss Gladys Land. The afternoon was most pleasantly passed and a handkerchief shower for the bride-elect was an interesting feature of the party. Miss Hays served fruit salad, sandwiches, olives, pickles and coffee. There was a "wedding cake" also, the usual merriment attending the drawing of the emblems it contained. Miss Kathleen Lackey received the ring, Miss Opal Spencer the dime, Miss Roberta Dixon the darning needle, and Miss Rebecca Lackey the thimble.

WANTS MORE PAY FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19.—Superintendent Colvin, in a letter to the new County Boards of Education, which meet to organize the first Saturday in March, advises them to appoint various committees and employ a secretary who can keep books and file records so that the County Superintendent will have time to attend to his duties.

Superintendent Colvin recommends that the County Superintendent be permitted to attend a professional school each year on pay. He sets forth a comparison of salaries and responsibilities of city and county superintendents and shows that heretofore County Superintendents who have an average of ninety-one teachers and 4,218 pupils have received an average salary of $1,065.47, while City Superintendents with an average of thirty teachers and 1,312 pupils have received an average salary of $2,784.16.

FOUR KENTUCKIANS HELD.

Flanery and placed in jail, charged with having shot Deputy Sheriff Melvin Hunter, William Fraley, Constable, and Young Phillips when they were searching for a moonshine still near Jim Binson's house.

The Sheriff also arrested Leonard and Milton Binson, sons of Jim Binson, charged with having conducted a moonshine still found in a cave near the residence of George Barker.

OIL PRICE IS AGAIN REDUCED

The purchasing agencies have again reduced the price of crude oil in Kentucky 25c per barrel. This brings Somerset light to $2.00 and Somerset to $1.75. January 1st it was $4.50 and $4.25.

The price of gasoline has been reduced only 10 per cent. Production is being reduced to the lowest possible point. Development is being abandoned. Wages of drillers and other oil workers are being cut heavily.

There is much murmuring heard about cutting the price nearly 60 per cent in less than two months. It is generally regarded as unjustifiable.

THE NEW FINISHING MILL FOR LOUISA

The planing mill and contracting enterprise mentioned in NEWS recently is rapidly taking form. G. L. Hawkins and H. H. Queen, of Van Lear, are the promoters. They will move their families to Louisa within the next few weeks.

Having so far recovered health and strength as to be out of the house a few times during those warm and bright days last week, for the first time since last October, I wish through the NEWS, to thank each and every person who in any way has assisted me in the time of my recent illness. For every word of sympathy and good cheer, for every kindly act, for every gift, and for every prayer for my recovery, Mrs. Kennison and I both wish to express our grateful thanks and deep appreciation. And we pray the Heavenly Father to reward you all most richly. Sincerely, EDWARD M. KENNISON.
